How to make a ham and cheese sandwich

Ingredients:

two slices of bread

some butter

a slice of ham

a slice of cheese

some lettuce

Steps:

First, spread some butter on the bread with a butter knife.

Next, put a slice of ham on the bread.

Then, put a slice of cheese on top of the ham.

After that, wash some lettuce and put it on the cheese.

Finally, put another slice of bread on top of the lettuce.

Now, the sandwich is ready. Enjoy your food!

We Are Hungry!

It was a cool and sunny Sunday. Susie felt hungry and said, "I'm hungry." Mary smiled and replied, "Let's make some sandwiches."

They went to look in the fridge. Susie asked, "Is there any ham?" "Yes, Susie," replied Mary, "There are some butter, cheese, and a lot of fruit." "Let's make some sandwiches," suggested Mary. "I like ham sandwiches," said Susie.

Then Susie asked, "Is there any bread?" Mary looked carefully and said, "Oh no! There isn't any bread!" Susie felt disappointed. But Mary quickly added, "However, we can make some fruit salad." Susie brightened up and said, "That's a good idea!"

Lastly, they made a big bowl of fruit salad together. "It's yummy!" said Susie happily. "I'm full," said Mary with a smile.

My Favourite Dish

My favourite food is noodles. I love them because they are delicious and can be cooked in many different ways. Sometimes I eat noodles with dumplings, carrots, sausage, or cucumbers. Each combination tastes special and makes me happy.

I enjoy eating noodles with my family and cousins, especially when we go to restaurants together. On Sundays, my dad cooks noodles at home. I feel lucky because we can watch TV and enjoy dinner as a family.

Noodles originated in China, but today they are common all around the world. They always make me feel full and satisfied. For me, noodles are not just food — they are comfort, tradition, and joy. That is why noodles are the perfect dish for me.

Fun Fun Holiday Camp

The holidays are coming, and I am interested in joining Fun Fun Holiday Camp. There are three camps for us to choose from. They are Sports Camp, Chinese Chess Camp and Music Camp.

I don't want to go to Music Camp because I am not good at music. I can't play the drums or the piano. But I love singing, so maybe I can take the singing class at the camp.

I want to go to Sports Camp because I am good at sports. I can swim, play football, and table tennis. I also want to learn how to play tennis at the camp.

Chinese Chess Camp also seems exciting. I can play Chinese Chess, but I am not very good at it. I think I can take classes at the camp to improve.

In the end, I think I will join Sports Camp because I love sports the most!

Jane's Lucky Morning

It is seven thirty in the morning. Mum wakes Jane up and says, "Wake up, Jane! Time for school!" Jane gets up late and feels worried.

She quickly puts on her school uniform. Mum gives her breakfast and says, "Eat breakfast, dear." But Jane replies, "I'm late, Mum!"

Jane is in a hurry. She shouts, "I'm late for school!" She feels nervous and afraid. She runs very fast and doesn't even take her schoolbag.

When she reaches the door, Jane suddenly remembers something. She says, "Oh! It is a school holiday today. Yeah! What a lucky day!" Jane feels happy and thinks it is an unforgettable morning.

Sunny

Today was our family day. We went to Lamma Island by ferry. I felt very excited.

In the afternoon, we went to the beach. We built a big sandcastle. Mum rested under a tree. Dad swam in the sea. We had our great time at the beach.

In the evening, we went to a Chinese restaurant. We ate seafood together. I said, "Happy birthday, Grandpa!" and gave him a gift. Grandpa felt very happy.

At night, we caught the last ferry home. We felt tired but happy. What a great day!

My Easter Holiday

I had a wonderful Easter holiday. First, I went to Japan with my mum and dad. Mum and I went to the hotel spa. It was so relaxing. The water was hot and warm. I felt very comfortable.

Second, we went to a shopping centre. My parents and I bought many things. Some of them were only sold in Japan. My mum bought new clothes. My dad bought clothes too. I bought toys because they were cute.

Third, we went back to Hong Kong by plane. On the last day of the holiday, we stayed at home. I played games on my phone and studied for the exam. I felt bored that day.

I enjoyed our Japan trip because I loved the spa in the hotel. I had a very nice holiday!
