Dear Frank,

Thank you for your letter. I miss you very much.

When I was little, I couldn't go to school or cook instant noodles. Mum helped me a lot.

I could get dressed when I was young. Also, I couldn't climb the stairs.

Now, I can do up my buttons but I can't swim. I can cook instant noodles. I feel happy.

I wish I can cook special dishes. I am looking forward to your letter.

Love,

Jenny

Derek's family went to an elderly home to visit his Grandpa every Sunday. Grandpa couldn't take care of himself. Derek felt bored.

One Sunday, Derek complained to his parents. He said, 'I don't want to visit Grandpa every Sunday. I want to ride a bicycle. Mum said, 'Your grandpa helped you a lot when you were young.'

Then, Mum showed Derek the photo album. Mum said, 'When you were young, you couldn't get dressed or comb your hair by yourself. Grandpa is the one helped you a lot. ' Derek felt sorry. He never complained about visiting Grandpa again.

In the end, Derek learnt a lesson that he should love his grandpa from now on. He said, 'I am sorry, Grandpa!' He was kind to Grandpa from now on.

A shopping experience

Last Saturday, it was sunny and hot. It was eight o'clock in the morning. Amy and mum went to a big supermarket. Amy saw a lot of food and snacks. Amy said, 'Mum, what do we do?' Mum said, 'I will tell you what to buy and you put them in the trolley.' Amy said, 'Ok, Mum!'

Then, Amy saw her favourite potato chips. Amy said, 'Mummy, can we buy a packet of chips?' Amy was hoping Mum would say yes but Mum said, 'No, Amy, they are too unhealthy!' Mum refused to buy the chips. Amy was so sad, but Amy thought of an idea.

When Mum walked away, Amy stole ten dollars from Mum and took the potato chips. She was thinking to get the snacks and paid for it after Mum did the payment.

In the end, Mum went to pay with her money. She noticed her ten dollars was missing. She said, 'Amy, did you take my ten dollars?' Amy lied and said, 'No!' After Mum was done paying, Amy paid for her chips.

Late for school

Every Sunday, Derek and his parents go to the elderly centre to visit Grandpa. Mum was feeding him but Derek was bored.

One Sunday, they went back home. Derek complained, 'I don't want to go to the elderly centre. I want to ride a bicycle.' Mum said, 'Grandpa is too old. We need to visit him. Let's go cycling next time!'

Mum showed Derek a photo album. Mum said, 'When you were five, Grandpa helped you comb your hair and he did a lot of things for you.' Derek felt upset of himself.

In the end, Derek planned to go to the elderly centre every week. He would spend some time and chat with Grandpa from now on. He felt delighted.

When I was little

Dear Frank,

How are you? I am good.

When I was five, I couldn't comb my hair by myself so my mum helped me. When I was five, I could do up my buttons by myself. When I was five, I also can pack my school bag.

When I was five, I couldn't wash my shoes and now I still can't wash my shoes. Now I could cook instant noodles.

I'm looking forward to your letter soon.

Healthy Eating Advice for Coco

My friend is Coco. She has unhealthy eating habits. She likes eating a lot of salty food and sweets, but she eats a little vegetables.

She likes eating salty food such as French fries, bacon and instant noodles. However, she eats a little vegetables and fruits. She should eat less salty food and sweets and start eating more vegetables and fruits such as carrots, apples, lettuce and more.

Vegetables make us healthy so she should also eat fewer sweets because eating too many sweets is bad for our teeth. She should also eat less salty food because it makes her fat and causes heart disease. I want her to become stronger and fit.

Frank's Terrible Toothache

Frank had a sweet tooth. One day, his tooth was hurting very much so he screamed. His mum went to him and asked, 'Are you okay? What's wrong?' He replied, 'My tooth is hurting very badly! I think I have a toothache.' He felt very scared.

Then, they went to a dental clinic to check his teeth and the dentist pulled the tooth out. He was thankful to the dentist. But then, the dentist said, 'Follow me.'

He followed him. He saw a poster. The dentist said, 'You have to eat fewer sweets and start eating more fruit and vegetables every day, and brush your teeth every day.'

In the end, Frank learnt to eat fewer sweet things and more healthy food. He also remembered to brush his teeth daily.
