Never argue with each other

Last week, Tommy and Bella played with their dog in the room and they made the room messy. They threw all the toys on the floor so their mum fell down when she came into the room.

Mum asked Tommy and Bella to put away all the toys and put them in the box.

Tommy and Bella didn't want to clean up the toys so they argued with each other. Bella shouted at Tommy. 'At the beginning, you suggested to play toys together so it's your fault!' Tommy scolded Bella back. He said, 'But you also played just now and you should also be responsible.' They were all very angry about this matter.

Finally, Tommy and Bella listened to their mother's advice. Their mother said, 'In fact, there is no need to argue with each other about these things.' Then they made the room tidy. Mum felt very happy.

It is important to behave well on public transport. We should be nice to people around us.

When we are on public transport, we should wait patiently for the bus. We shouldn't jump the queue. We should talk softly on the phone because it is polite. We should help people in need because they may not feel well.

When we are in a restaurant, we should eat quietly because it is impolite to eat noisily. We should speak to the waiters politely such as saying 'please' and 'thank you'. We shouldn't make the table dirty because it will make the waiters spend more time to clean it.

We should behave well and be nice to others at all times and be caring for others when we are in public places.

The almost forgotten birthday cake

Last Saturday was Mum's birthday. Sam started the day with a to-do list. Sam told May to tidy the living room so they can prepare their food and decorations there and also write a birthday card. Then May shouted, 'What an easy task! I can do that in a flash!' 'And I will buy some snacks, drinks and also buy a birthday cake,' said Sam.

A few hours later, May tidied the living room. When Sam called May, he asked on the phone, 'Have you written the birthday card yet?' 'Yep! I've already written the birthday card.' May answered, 'Have you bought snacks and drinks yet?' May asked. Sam answered, 'Yes, I've already bought snacks and drinks.'

When Mum came back home, the party had already started but May realized there's no cake so she asked, 'Wait, where's the cake?' 'Oh no! I forgot to buy the cake!' Sam shouted. They were worried.

In the end, they bought a cake online. It came in a flash so they could still celebrate Mum's birthday.

My choice for transportation in Hong Kong

Hong Kong is a hustling city. The three common choices are travelling by MTR, taxi and ferry.

Some people prefer travelling by MTR because it is fast and sometimes it leads to a shopping mall directly. Although travelling by MTR is fast, it's also inconvenient. The price is quite cheap.

Some people enjoy travelling by taxi because it is comfortable and convenient. Although travelling by taxi is comfortable, it's expensive. It can take directly to the place that you want to go. Travelling by taxi might get you into traffic jams.

Many people like travelling by ferry because they enjoy looking at the views of the harbour. Although travelling by ferry is cheap, you may get seasick. It's quite fast and you can avoid traffic jams unlike travelling by taxi.

Out of all three, I like travelling by taxi because I like sitting comfortably and it drives me to the place I want to go directly.

A piece of news I will never forget

Last Tuesday I heard a shocking news report about a burglary at a convenience store when I was playing video games like Minecraft. The incident caught my attention and made me feel horrible.

The incident happened last Tuesday. There were three robbers robbing at a convenience store. They wore masks that covered their whole face. They also carried shotguns and two big bags so they could get free food and money. The shop assistant was so frightened that she wouldn't dare to move for five minutes straight. Although she was frightened, she tried to stay calm. The shop assistant called the police without the robbers noticing.

Within minutes, the police arrived while the robbers were pointing their guns at the shop assistant. When the robbers realized the police arrived, one of the robbers shouted, 'Guys! The police are here! Run! ' The robbers tried to escape and one of the robbers dropped a big bag of snacks. The robbers were afraid because they didn't want to get caught.

Soon, one of the robbers was arrested. Meanwhile the other two escaped. The witnesses that witnessed the crime felt really relieved. I learnt that we should always obey the laws and be good citizens.
