

Mum's birthday

Sam and his family celebrated Mum's birthday. They put on a birthday party for Mum at home. Sam wrote a to-do list. It's about what they were going to do. Sam needed to buy the party food and drinks. His sister needed to do the housework and prepare a birthday card. They were excited.

After Sam's sister finished tidying the living room, she called her brother. She asked, 'Have you done the shopping yet? Did you buy the snacks and drinks?' Sam replied, 'Yes, I have bought the snacks and drinks for the party. Have you written the birthday card yet?' Sam's sister said, 'Of course!' They were pleased.

At the party time, Sam's sister gave the birthday card to her mum. Her mum was delighted. Then they sang a birthday song for Mum. All of them were happy. Suddenly Sam's sister asked, 'Did you buy a birthday cake?' 'Oh no, I forgot to buy the birthday cake.' Sam replied.

Dad suggested that to order a cake from FoodPanda. They agreed. After a while, Dad came back with a birthday cake. Mum said, 'Thank you very much. I love you all.' Finally, they enjoyed the party because it was fun.

One day, Sue wanted to go to Disneyland, so Sue asked Amy, 'Have you ever been to Disneyland,' Amy replied, 'No, I have never been to Disneyland.' Sue suggested, 'Let's go to Disneyland now!' Amy was so happy, she said, 'You are my best friend!'

Last Sunday, Sue and Amy went to Disneyland. First, they took photos with cartoon characters. They went shopping in a gift shop and they played some games too. They felt so happy.

In the evening, they went home by MTR. On the train, suddenly, Amy said, 'Oh no! Where is my mobile phone?' Sue replied, ' Maybe the mobile phone is in your pocket?' Amy was so worried.

In the end, the mobile phone was in Amy's bag. Amy and Sue said, 'It was great!' They were so happy and they laughed out!

First, always wash hands before cooking. Put the chicken in the mixing bowl. Add pepper and mayonnaise to the chicken and mix them together.

After that, beat the eggs in the mixing bowl. Heat the oil in the frying pan and pour the egg. Fry it for three minutes. Cut it into four pieces.

Next, brush the pan with oil. Grill the bread and turn it over so that both sides are brown. Put mayonnaise and chicken on the first slice of bread. Put pepper, chill sauce, and fried egg on the second slice of bread. Put cheese and chill sauce on the third slice of bread.

Finally, put the bread on top of one another. Decorate and serve them on a plate.
