

Bella and Tommy

Last weekend, Tommy, Bella and their dog played happily and made their room a mess. There were a lot of toys. Mum fell down and she was painful, mum said, 'Who put they toys on the floor?' Mum was angry.

After that, Mum said patiently, 'you should tidy up toy, you shouldn't leave the toys on the floor.'

When Mum left, Bella and Tommy quarreled with each other. Tommy shouted rudely, 'You should tidy up!' Bella yelled, 'No! you do it!'

In the end, Mum said angrily, 'You should get on with each other, you shouldn't quarrel with each other.'

Bella and Tommy felt sorry and tidied up their room quickly.

One day, Jim was shocked to see a strange person opening his neighbor's windows. The woman was in a black T-shirt and with the sunglasses. Jim thought, 'The person looked like a thief.'

Then, Jim was nervous and worried about his neighbor's house being damaged, so he called the police. He said, 'Please come soon to help.'

Soon, the police arrived and caught the 'thief.' But later they realized it was a misunderstanding. The person was actually the homeowner. Then woman had forgotten to bring her key, so she climbed through the windows and tried to enter her own home. The woman said, 'The home is mine!'

At last, Jim felt sorry. From then on, Jim become more careful and understand not to make conclusions easily. He needs to observe more and think more.

5B Classroom Rules

1. You should be quiet in class.
2. You should talk softly in class.
3. You should keep the classroom clean.
4. You should be nice to others in class.
5. You should help others.
6. You shouldn't shout at others.
7. You shouldn't eat or drink in class.

By Hannah

Have you bought the birthday cake yet?

Today was the birthday of Sam's mother. In the morning, Sam and his sister Amy planned party for their mother at home in the evening. They invited grandparents' aunt and mon's good friends. Amy asked Sam, 'Have you tidied up the living room yet?' Sam said, 'Yes, I've already done it!' Amy asked, 'Have you brought the snacks?' Sam said, 'No, I have not.' Therefore, Sam went to the supermarket to buy snacks.

After buying the snacks and drinks, Sam called Amy, he asked, 'Have you written the birthday card yet?' Amy replied, 'Yes, I've just finished it.' At 7 o'clock, Mum opened the door, Sam and Amy were excited. They shouted, 'Happy Birthday!' to mum. At that time, dad asked, 'Where is the birthday cake?' Sam said, 'Oh no! I forgot to buy the birthday cake.' He felt unhappy.

'Ding, Ding, Ding.' Mum's good friends came. They have brought a birthday cake. Everyone was happy.

An unforgettable day in Disneyland

One day, Sue wanted to go to Hong Kong Disneyland. She asked Amy, 'Have you ever been to Disneyland?' Amy said, 'No. I've never been to Disneyland before.' So they decided to go together.

Last Sunday, Sue and Amy went to Disneyland. When they arrived at Disneyland, they quickly took out their camera and took many pretty photos. Then they went shopping in the gift shop. They bought many lovely key chains. They felt very happy.

In the evening, they went home by MTR. Suddenly, Amy said, 'Oh no! Where is my phone?' Amy felt very worried. Then Sue said, 'Have you checked your shopping bag yet?' Then Amy immediately checked her shopping bag.

In the end, Amy finally found her own phone in her shopping bag. After she found her phone in her shopping bag, she felt relieved and went home happily.

Ways of travelling to school

Good morning, I am Sammi from Class 5B. I am going to report a survey about the ways our classmates travel to school.

Four people in the class like travelling to school by bus because it is fast and cheap. Two of us like travelling to school by taxi because it is comfortable. Although travelling by bus is fast and cheap, people need to wait for a long time. Sometimes, it's crowded in the morning.

One of us live near the school so he comes to school on foot. It takes about few minutes to walk to school. Three of us come to school by MTR because it is fast. Although travelling by MTR is fast, it is crowded in the morning.

That's the end of my presentation. Thank you.

A Happy Day in Ma Wan Park

Last Sunday, Gary and Patty went to Ma Wan Park. They went there by ferry. It took thirty minutes to travel from the Pier to Ma Wan. They looked at the view. It was gorgeous. Patty said, 'Although travelling by ferry is slow, it's comfortable.'

After they arrived at Ma Wan, they talked about which transport they preferred. Gary asked, 'Do you prefer travelling by bus or taxi?' Patty said, 'I prefer travelling by taxi because it's very fast.' Then they got on the taxi. At Ma Wan Park, they watched plants, played games and had a barbecue. They were over the moon.

In the end, they felt tired so they fell asleep on the bus. Although they were exhausted, they were happy.

What an unforgettable Day

Last Sunday, Ken and Mum went to a cafe near Kowloon Bank. They had strawberry cakes and iced coffee for the afternoon tea. Suddenly, they heard a loud cry. A man stood outside the bank said, 'Help, help!' Ken and Mum were worried.

Later, they saw a security guard chasing the robber before the police arrived. Ken and Mum felt afraid. Ken said, 'How can we help?' One minute later, the robber fired his gun at the security guard and the police. They were injured. They felt very painful. Ken and Mum were nervous so they wanted to call the police.

In the end, a man appeared and said to the robber, 'Well done, James!' Ken and Mum were shocked because the man turned out to be a film director and they were just making a new film. Ken and Mum burst into laughter in the end.