

Danny becomes a pig

Danny was a naughty boy. One day, Danny played ball in his home and broke the vase which was his mum favourite. Mum tried to punish him. 'How dare you!' she said angrily. However, he got away from his home.

When Danny was walking, he was lost in the forest. 'Where am I?' said Danny. He was hungry so he was looking for food. Then, he found a beautiful house in the forest which was made of wood. He went inside and saw a lot of delicious food. He started eating happily. Suddenly, he turned into a pig! He was shocked.

In the end, Danny tripped over and woke up. He found that it was a dream. He promised his mum he won't be naughty again.

The boy who cried for wolf

Jasper was reading a story and he shared the story with his father. In the story Charlie was bored and he shouted, 'Help! Wolf!' Then the villagers rushed to find him.

The villagers found out that there was no wolf when they went up to Charlie. They felt angry. Charlie said 'There's no wolf, silly!' He laughed at the villagers. Later, Charlie's sister was caught by the wicked witch. Charlie asked the villagers for help. However, the villagers were angry so they did not offer any help to him. Charlie was sad.

After reading the story, Jasper told his father, 'If I were Charlie, I would save my sister.' Charlie learned that we should be honest at any time.

Miss Morris' Hong Kong trip

Last month, Miss Morris was visiting Hong Kong from Australia. May and Jimmy met her at the airport. They felt very happy.

After leaving the airport, they went to the bus stop. They felt worried because there was so much smoke. Miss Morris said, 'The traffic makes so much noise. The buses produce so many fumes.'

After that, they went to a handbag shop. They saw many leather handbags which were made of crocodile skin. Miss Morris said, 'Hunter will catch crocodiles unless we stop buying leather handbags made of crocodile skins.'

Then, they went to a seafood restaurant. They saw the poster written Special Offer $100 each. May and Jimmy said, 'Let's eat shark fin soup.' But Miss Morris said, 'You should stop eating shark fin soup.'

In the end, they would never eat shark fin soup. They felt happy. Miss Morris went back to Australia.

6B Seto Bailey (Writing 4)

There are a lot of problems in Africa. The land isn't suitable to grow plants. People there do not have enough money to buy food. The water is so dirty and people get sick easily. They are weak so they cannot work.

There are a lot of children, but no one to take care of them. There are not enough books so whenever they read, they need to share a book. There are very few tables and chairs. Some of them have to sit on the floor. Although the classroom is narrow, they study hard.

To help people in Africa, we can donate money, run a second – hand stall and sell things to help them.